Greetings,

This ISNRA International Scholars and Researchers Association aims to bring together industry, academia and professionals to exchange and share their scholarly ideas, research findings or experiences.

The Scientific Committee at the International Scholars and Researchers Association (ISNRA) expresses its deep gratitude and appreciation to your honorable efforts in keeping up with the latest methods of technology which ensure an integration with the human knowledge progress within a unified international environment that contribute to the enhancement of our cultural development. Therefore, we are honored to invite you to participate as scientific committee member, and session manager in the International Conference on Engineering, Medicine and Applied Sciences, which will be held in Turkey between September 24th and 26th, 2018. The conference will discuss a number of important topics and objectives throughout a series of authentic scientific research papers for researchers from all over the world.

If you have any questions and concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me anytime.

Sincerely,

Jason
